Stamp Duty or Land Tax (on purchase)

This depends on the purchase price of your property. You can calculate the amount you will need to pay using HMRC's website <https://www.tax.service.gov.uk/calculate-stamp-duty-land-tax/#/intro> or if the property is located in Wales by using the Welsh Revenue's Authority's website <https://lttcalculator.wra.gov.wales/>

How long will my house purchase take?

How long it will take from your offer being accepted until you can move in to your house will depend on a number of factors. The average process takes between 6-8 weeks from receipt of contract paperwork. It can be quicker or slower, depending on the parties in the chain. For example, if you are a first-time buyer, purchasing a new build property with a mortgage in principle, it could take 12 weeks to exchange contracts. The completion date is dependent on the property build being complete.

Stages of the process

The precise stages involved in the purchase of a residential property vary according to the circumstances. The usual steps in a standard transaction are as follows –

- Take your instructions and give you initial advice
- Check finances are in place to fund purchase and contact lender's solicitors if needed
- Deal with anti-money laundering requirements (proof of identify)
- Receive and advise on contract documents
- Carry out searches
- Obtain further planning documentation if required
- Make any necessary enquiries of seller's solicitor
- Give you advice on all documents and information received
- Go through conditions of mortgage offer with you
- Arrange appointment with you to go through all documentation and sign in readiness
- Agree a completion date (date from which you own the property)
- Exchange contracts and notify you that this has happened

- Arrange for all monies needed to be received from lender and you
- Complete purchase
- Deal with payment of Stamp Duty/Land Tax
- Deal with application for registration at Land Registry

Purchase of a leasehold residential property

Our fees cover all the work* required to complete the purchase of your new home –

- Dealing with registration at the Land Registry
- Dealing with Stamp Duty Land Tax (Stamp Duty) if the property is in England, or Land Transaction Tax (Land Tax) if the property is in Wales

See purchase of a freehold residential property for fees, other charges and disbursements.

The additional fee for a leasehold transaction is £200 plus VAT due to the additional work involved.

In addition to the other costs and disbursements for a freehold property, there are certain disbursements which will be set out in the individual lease relating to the property. The disbursements which we anticipate will apply are set out separately below. This list is not exhaustive and other disbursements may apply depending on the terms of the lease. We will update you on the specific fees upon receipt and review of the lease from the seller's solicitors.

Anticipated Disbursements

- Notice of transfer fee – this fee if chargeable is set out in the lease. Often the fee is between £60 and £200.*
- Notice of Charge fee (if the property is to be mortgaged) – this fee is set out in the lease. Often the fee is between £60 and £200.*
- Deed of Covenant fee – this fee is provided by the management company for the property and can be difficult to estimate. Often the fee is between £100 and £250.*
- Certificate of Compliance fee to be confirmed upon receipt of the lease, and can range between £60 and £200.*

*these fees vary from property to property and can on occasion be significantly more than the ranges given above. We can give you an accurate figure once we have sight of your specific documents.

You should also be aware that ground rent and service charges are likely to apply throughout your ownership of the property. We will confirm the ground rent and the anticipated service charge as soon as we receive this information.

Stamp Duty Land Tax

This depends on the purchase price of your property. You can calculate the amount you will need to pay by using HMRC's website <https://www.tax.service.gov.uk/calculate-stamp-duty-land-tax/#/intro>

or if the property is located in Wales by using the Welsh Revenue Authority's website <https://littcalculator.wra.gov.wales/>

How long will my house purchase take?

How long it will take from your offer being accepted until you can move in to your property will depend on a number of factors. The average process for a freehold property takes between 6-8 weeks from receipt of contract paperwork. However, if you are buying a leasehold property significantly more work is involved and the number of parties involved means that the purchase of a leasehold property can take much longer than this. The average timescale is between 12 and 16 weeks. If the lease requires an extension this can take significantly longer, being months rather than weeks. In such a situation additional charges would apply.

Our fee assumes that –

- This is a standard transaction and that no unforeseen matters arise for example (but not limited to) -
 - a defect in title
 - the preparation of additional documents ancillary to the main transaction
- this is the assignment of an existing lease and is not the grant of a new lease
- the transaction is concluded in a timely manner and no unforeseen complications arise
- indemnity policies are not required. Additional disbursements may apply if indemnity policies are required
